"This is an attractive new style for Torrontés. Made with grapes from Gualtallary and fermented and aged in 500 liters barrels, the 2019 Torrontés Chakana Estate Selection is a fascinating wine: pale and murky in the glass because of the lees, the reductive focus ensures pristine aromas: white peach, gentle orange blossom, fennel and basil. In the mouth it is dry with a chalky texture well-balanced by the heightened freshness. The long, thirst-quenching finish makes this a wine to watch out for. - Joaquín HIDALGO"
