

LA DESPENSA WINES

COLCHAGUA VALLEY 2021
SANGIOVESE

"You can count the number of decent Chilean Sangioveses on the digits of one hand, so it's great to see the first release from Matt Ridgway's La Despensa project. Entirely unwooded, it's a faithful rendition of the variety, showing red cherry, tea leaf and redcurrant flavours and a nip of savoury tannins."
