Escudero Extra Virgin Olive Oil
Bodegas Escudero

The Escudero family has a rich history in both winemaking as well as olive production. Their special production ‘Legend of Becquer’ is a romance poet Gustavo Adolfo Becquer, who found inspiration in the Erbo Valley.

Bécquer de Leyenda is an extra virgin olive oil, extracted from the best olive varieties: Arbequina and Tosca. The Arbequina is a variety from the Erbo Valley, because of its high resistance to low temperatures. Soft, lightweight, delicate and sweet olive oil is extracted through the traditional method. Tosca is a variety that is also very resistant to cold temperatures. Its origins come from the region of Tuscany in Italy, in which the best olive oils are produced in the world. The Tosca matures several weeks earlier than the Arbequina and performs very well in mechanical processing. The oil from Tosca olives is very fruity, dominated by fresh green leaf, grass and artichoke, combined with hints of spice and herb. It is well balanced and has a persistent finish.

Bécquer de Leyenda is considered a high-quality craftsman olive oil, obtained directly from olives and solely by mechanical means, preserving its nutritional value. Unfiltered to preserve its aroma and flavor.
