

Bressia Conjuro

Bodegas Bressia

Argentina - Mendoza - Uco Valley

Conjuro is a blend of Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot from Gualtallary vineyards, located in the Tupungato area at 3,600 feet above sea level.

Its elegant, expressive aromas prepare us for a full-bodied, broad and elegant wine, with a long, unctuous finish, that leaves us with a seductive, pleasurable sensation.

Specifications

| | |
|---------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Appellation | Uco Valley |
| Varietals | 50% Malbec, 30% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 20% Merlot |
| Soil type | calcareous gravel |
| Vinification | Aged 18 months in 70% French oak (Taransaud, Mistral, and Radoux), and 30% American oak. Aged additional 24 months in bottle prior to release. |

Reviews and News

| |
|----------------------------------------------|
| 2017 Bressia Conjuro - 93 PTS - TA |
| 2016 Bressia Conjuro - 95 PTS - Descorchados |
| 2016 Bressia Conjuro - 93 PTS - VINOUS |
| 2016 Bressia Conjuro - 92 PTS - TA |
| 2015 Bressia Conjuro - 91 PTS - WA |
| 2014 Bressia Conjuro - 94 PTS - TA |
| 2014 Bressia Conjuro - 91 PTS - WE |
| 2014 Bressia Conjuro - 90 PTS - WA |
| 2014 Bressia Conjuro - 90 PTS - VINOUS |
| 2013 Bressia Conjuro - 94 PTS - Descorchados |