

Singularly Focused on the Pursuit of World-Class Cabernet Sauvignon

Since our founding in 1978, Quilceda Creek has dedicated itself to one thing: producing world-class Cabernet Sauvignon. Director of Winemaking Paul Golitzin believes that the winery’s greatest assets are the vineyards of the Columbia Valley. Through vineyard ownership and control, and through precision farming, we are able to grow and produce the highest caliber Cabernet Sauvignon. In award of our relentless pursuit of producing perfect Cabernet Sauvignon, Quilceda Creek has received seven 100 Point ratings from Wine Advocate, three 100 Point ratings from Owen Bargreen, one 100 Point rating from Decanter and three Top Ten Wines of the Year from Wine Spectator.

From our very first vintage in 1979, we have dedicated ourselves to doing one thing, and doing it right. We made the decision to focus on our greatest asset, the prolific vineyards of the Columbia Valley, and from the best of its grapes, create the highest caliber Cabernet Sauvignon. This decision continues to be our guiding philosophy today. We are proud to have set the benchmark for Cabernet Sauvignon, not only for Washington State but of all Cabernet Sauvignon producing regions. We create our wine with passion and intentionality. Dedicated to quality over everything else, our head winemaker, Paul Golitzin, marries precision with artistry. We produce Cabernet Sauvignon that compete with the cult wines of Napa Valley such as Screaming Eagle and Harlan Estate, and with France’s First-Growth wineries like Chateau Lafite Rothschild, Chateau Latour, Chateau Margaux or Chateau Haut-Brion.

Producing world-class wine with uncompromising quality year after year is as much science as it is art. In order to be successful, we keep our focus on small lots, with quality always taking precedence over quantity. With today’s changing climates, we continuously update our growing approach and integrate technology to maintain consistency in our vineyards. We drive the 250 miles to Eastern Washington every week, checking on our grapes personally, religiously tending the vineyards, harvesting them at the absolute peak, then transporting them back to our estate in Snohomish, WA for the crush.

One of our highest honors was when President Barack Obama chose to serve our 100-pt. 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley at the White House to President Hu Jintao of China in 2011. As a validation of our pursuit of exceptional wine and consistency in the world of Cabernet Sauvignon, we are pleased to share with you the following Wine Advocate and Jeb Dunnuck reviews over the past 17 vintages.
