

Arzuaga Ribera del Duero La Planta

Bodegas Arzuaga

Spain - Castilla y Leon - Ribera del Duero

The wine has been crafted from grapes cultivated at La Planta estate, owned by Arzuaga Navarro's family in Quintanilla de Onésimo, the heart of Ribera del Duero. The soil is clay-calcareous and the subsoil is pure limestone at one meter under the surface. The vineyard altitude is 911 meters above sea level. These specific conditions provide distinct features of the wine.

The wine boasts a deep violet red color. Clean and bright with a range of red fruits (raspberry and cherry) that dominate with a high aromatic intensity, joined by balsamic, cacao, coffee, and roasted tones. Fresh, elegant, easy, and balanced in the mouth with a lightly sweet, toasted, and pleasant aftertaste.

Specifications
Appellation	Ribera del Duero
Varietals	100% Tempranillo
Soil type	Clay & Limestone
Vinification	Grapes were picked by hand at their optimum ripeness. Bunches were brought to the winery in plastic crates and sorted at a sorting table. After destemming, grapes were pumped into stainless-steel vats where they macerated at a cool temperature and the alcoholic fermentation took place at 22-24°C. Once the fermentation was finished, the wine was aged for six months in French and American oak barrels.
Production	115,000 (9-liter cases)
Pairings	Fried fish, sausage, and white meats such as roasted poultry.
