Pago de Carraovejas

Spain - Castilla y Leon - Ribera del Duero

The Cuesta de las Liebres plot located on a terraced mountainside, located 900 meters above sea level with slopes of 30-40 degrees. Vines are grown in a vertical cup shape, surrounded by low brush. The soil is loamy limestone, with outcrops of gypsum and calcium salts. It is Pago's most precise and pure vineyard. This wine is only made in unique harvests.

Red cherry color with purple hues. Ripe fruit aromas, vanilla notes. Suave and unctuous in the mouth. A strong and noble character. A truly authentic wine.
