

St. Nikolaus Wehlener Sonnenuhr Riesling Spatlese

Weingut St. Nikolaus-Hospital

Germany - Mosel

The Wehlener Sonnenuhr is one of the most legendary and popular Riesling vineyards in the world. The vineyard is facing the small town of Wehlen, located in the middle of a long steep curved slate slope on the Mosel, with a south-southwest exposure. "Sonnenuhr" means sundial. This top location produces wines of pure elegance and delicate minerality.

The Riesling impresses with gentle fruit aromas of white peach and apricot with honey and spicy notes. Strong, sweet and long flavors. Elegant, full bodied and luscious wine with good minerality and acidity on the palate. The juicy, fine and rich acidity ensures an absolute drinking experience and a fascinating lightness.
