

Couvreur Special Vatting Malt Whiskey

Michel Couvreur

France - Burgundy - Bouze-Les-Beaune

This vatted malt combines three "single-single malts" (single casks) aged 12, 14 and 22 years old. As with the entire Couvreur range, it is distinctive and impressive.

The complex flavors are obtained thanks to:

- an old, mature, spicy and mellow whiskey (matured in Oloroso cask)
- a iodine and peaty younger whiskey with fresh structure and very expressive flavors (matured in PX cask).
- a delicate and subtle whiskey (like our Pale Single) which is helpful for this good balance.

Deep and rancio mellow flavors of whiskies matured in old Sherry casks are enhanced by the iodine and fresh almond peaty from the younger whiskies.

Sherry, leather, tobacco, delicate and subtle woody flavors. Delicious silky texture, nice balance. A delicious peat that reminds liquorice flavors.
