

Mancinelli Lacrima di Morro d'Alba
Azienda Agricola Stefano Mancinelli
Italy - Marche - Lacrima di Morro d'Alba DOC

Lacrima di Morro d'Alba - The wine takes its name from an unusual grape which was named for the town around which it is grown. Morro comes from "Mur" or "Muro" (wall) and not "Moro" (Moor) or black. The name Alba refers not to the town in Alba in Piedmont but to "Altura" which means "rise or high ground" . Il Muro in Alto or the wall on high which was how this walled Medieval walled Borgo (town) was referred to in Medieval times.

Color: Deep dark ruby red with violet reflections.
 Bouquet: Intense bouquet full of roses, violets and red berries
 Taste: Vinous and dry with soft fruit and a velvety body
