

Romariz Fine Ruby Port

Romariz

Portugal - Douro

Ruby port is a bright, deep red-colored wine. Black fruit and pepper characters, well-balanced and full-bodied. The palate offers red cherry and fresh plum flavors. A long, smooth and warm finish.

Specifications
Varietals	Touriga Nacional, Touriga Franca, Tinto Cãeo, Tinta Roriz, Tinta Barroca
Vinification	Fine Ruby Port is made from selected full bodied wines which are aged for up to three years in large oak vats, each containing about 20,000 litres of wine. As they age, they gain smoothness and elegance while retaining their fruitiness, intensity and their youthful ruby color. The wines are then blended together for balance and consistency.
